Forecast for Sunday 13 Jun 2021

Weather: Low cloud across western ranges burning off through the morning, although this may take until the end of the morning down across Ben Alder and Rannoch Moor. Otherwise dry with some sunshine before low cloud and some light rain spread southeast across the area from late afternoon and more especially in the evening.

Chance of cloud free mountain/hill tops above 800m: 50% across the west, 80% across the Cairngorms

Visibility: Poor in low cloud down to 500 metres at first in the west, this burning off in the morning. Otherwise good visibility with little in the way of cloud on the summits. However low cloud between 500 and 800 metres returning to the west from late afternoon, and remaining ranges through the evening.
